

Ibaraki University presents:

Online Furoshiki Workshop

Date

Wednesday, March 17

Time

10:00am~12:30 (Japan Time)

Location

ZOOM, Video Conference System

We will send you the ZOOM link to the participants.

Registration: Please register here for the event
by Sunday, January 31 2021 (Japan Time).

Target: Students and faculty/staff members of Ibaraki University and universities affiliated with Ibaraki University

Languages: Japanese and English

Participation Fee: Free

Number of participants: 100 (first-come-first-served basis)

Contact: Masaki Seo (masaki.seo.ms@vc.ibaraki.ac.jp)
Center for Global Education, Ibaraki University

Furoshiki is the traditional Japanese wrapping cloth commonly used to transport clothes, gifts or other goods. You will receive a furoshiki cloth before the day of the event via airmail and learn how to wrap items.

Under the instruction of the expert of the long-established manufacturer of furoshiki in Kyoto, we will learn how to wrap items with furoshiki together with students of Ibaraki University as well as its partner's universities! Participants will receive a furoshiki with the Ibaraki University logo on it! After the workshop, ZOOM breakout sessions will be held to encourage interaction among participants.

Schedule of the Event (Japan Time)

10:00~11:30 Furoshiki Workshop

11:30~12:30 Breakout Session